Q. No. 29. (a) Read the following paragraph carefully and answer Q. No. 1, 2 and 3. Marks (5)

A rich man had only one son. The son did not have the company of good friends. He adopted many bad habits. The man was much worried about the bad habits of his son. He tried his best to mend his habits but he could not succeed. One day he thought of a plan to teach him a lesson. He went to market and bought some fresh apples and a rotten one. He came back home and called the son. He asked the son to put all the apples along with the rotten one in the cupboard. The son did the same. After some days the father asked the son to bring the apples. As he opened the door of the cupboard, he was surprised to note that all the apples had become rotten. He got sad. At this time his father told him to see how one rotten apple had spoiled all the others. The father's advice had great effect. The boy gave up bad company and became good again.
